THE ANNE FUND

20TH ANNUAL

SPORTS

MEMORABILIA

AUCTION

Proceeds support:

- WellSpan Sechler Family Cancer Center
- Direct contributions to individuals and families battling cancer
- The local chapter of the American Cancer Society
- The Hershey Palmyra Sertoma Club to fund the annual Four Diamonds/ CMN Christmas party for children and their families treated at Penn State Children's Hospital.

Welcome and thank you for attending the 20th Annual Sports Memorabilia Auction. In light of the COVID-19 pandemic and concern for health and safety, this year's auction is taking place virtually. We are sad to not be able to meet in person for the auction this year or to support local businesses through the "Taste of Lebanon". A virtual auction seemed to be the best idea to keep the auction going this year and to raise money. The local community needs these funds now more than ever, as cancer never rests.

The Anne Fund, named in memory of my Mother Anne C. Gerhart, serves one purpose: to help make a difference for those in our community fighting cancer. It is hard to believe this is the 20th event; over 2,000 items and $350,000 plus has distributed to the Wellspan Sechler Family Cancer Center, The American Cancer Society, Hershey Palmyra Sertoma and local families, so special thanks to all our sponsors over the years and a special thanks to you. Without your support, either by donating items or by attending and purchasing an item it is unlikely we would be here today for the 20th event.

Sincerely,

Tom Gerhart

Experience MATTERS

Ellis Lee HOSTETTER & CO, PC

More than five decades ago, Ellis Lee Hostetter picked up a pencil, pulled a balance sheet out of a large stack of papers and began crunching numbers. With his accounting expertise guiding the way, Mr. Hostetter laid a foundation for the future of Ellis Lee Hostetter & Co., P.C., a family-owned accounting firm with a heart for people and a passion for numbers.

Today, we invite you to journey with us through more than 50 years of business ingenuity. Pairing precise accounting with neighborly service, we promise to serve you, your business, your fiduciary or your nonprofit with the same attention to detail that launched Ellis Lee Hostetter & Co., P.C. so many years ago. We've stuck to our roots—and we want to share our roots with you.

ITEM NUMBER	ITEM NUMBER	Description
1	Indianapolis Colts football	Autographed by Head Coach (a Lebanon Native, Cedar Crest High School Graduate, Maryland University and former NFL QB) Frank Reich and QB Andrew Luck.
2	Chicago Bears football	Autographed by Bears Head Coach Matt Nagy (A Manheim Central Graduate, University of Delaware QB) and QB Mitch Trubisky. comes with letter from the Bears for COA.
3	Donovan McNabb Autographed Football	McNabb was the Eagles' starting quarterback from 1999 to 2009. During his tenure with the Eagles, he led the team to eight playoff appearances (2000–2004, 2006, 2008 and 2009),[3] five NFC East division championships (2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, and 2006), five NFC Championship games (2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, and 2008), and Super Bowl XXXIX, which the Eagles lost to the New England Patriots, 24–21. He also became the Eagles' all-time leader in pass attempts, pass completions, passing yards, and passing touchdowns. (COA)
4	Hank Aaron Autographed Bat	Donated by Jack Cantwell Henry Louis Aaron (born February 5, 1934), nicknamed "Hammer" or "Hammerin' Hank," is a retired American Major League Baseball (MLB) right fielder who serves as the senior vice president of the Atlanta Braves. He played 21 seasons for the Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves in the National League (NL) and two seasons for the Milwaukee Brewers in the American League (AL), from 1954 through 1976. Aaron held the MLB record for career home runs for 33 years, and he still holds several MLB offensive records. He hit 24 or more home runs every year from 1955 through 1973, and is one of only two players to hit 30 or more home runs in a season at least fifteen times.[1] In 1999, The Sporting News ranked Aaron fifth on its "100 Greatest Baseball Players" list. COA included.
5	Stan Musial, Hank Greenberg & Brooks Robinson Bat	Donated by Jason Trout The Trout family started collecting baseball memorabilia in the mid 60's through the late 80's. It started by asking the Baltimore Orioles for a signed baseball at the beginning of the 1966 season and grew to over 30,000 autographs. The ball was hand delivered to patriarch George Trout by Orioles traveling secretary and the family caught the bug. The majority of the collection was secured in person. Mr. Trout's career in radio allowed for dugout, clubhouse and field access and the 6 Trout children were part of the scene. The family traveled to the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown several times in a time when you could bump into Casey Stengel, Whitey Ford, Stan Musial, Buck Leonard and other hall of famers on the street who happily signed. In addition, Trout was the talent go between with agents for the York area Sports Night which featured stars like Ted Williams, Mickey Mantle, Hank Aaron and Joe DiMaggio in the late 60's 70's and 80's. In a time before big contracts and cell phones, these stars and others were invited back to the Trout house after the show ended at 10:00 for a spaghetti dinner. They always said yes and interesting conversation along with the opportunity for additional autographs presented itself. The Trout family has hundreds of photographs with hundreds of baseball legends and Brooks Robinson and the late George Trout were close buddies. They got to know each other when Trout announced Brooks at one of his first professional at bats in York PA when Brooks was still a second baseman playing for the York White Roses. BTW, the original 1966 Orioles ball signed by the eventual World Champs is still in the family.
6	Jim Kelly Helmet; Autographed	Buffalo Bills selected quarterback Jim Kelly in the first round of the 1983 NFL Draft. However, the Miami Hurricane star opted to sign with the Houston Gamblers of the United States Football League. Kelly, in two seasons with the Gamblers, threw for 9,842 yards and 83 touchdowns.In 11 seasons in Buffalo, Kelly led the Bills to the playoffs eight times. In 17 playoff game appearances, including four consecutive Super Bowls, he passed for 3,863 yards and 21 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, his 84.4 passer rating ranked sixth all-time and was second when compared to Hall of Fame quarterbacks. His 35,467 career passing yards ranked tenth in NFL history; his 2,874 completions ranked eighth; and his 237 touchdowns ranked thirteenth.The USFL folded following the 1985 season, and Kelly, just prior to the start of the 1986 NFL season, signed with the Bills.A strong-armed passer with a "linebacker's mentality," Kelly lived up to his advance billing, as he virtually rewrote the Bills' record book for quarterbacks. Only three players in NFL history had reached the 30,000-yard career passing mark faster. Eight times during his NFL career he passed for more than 3,000 yards in a season, and twenty-six times he passed for more than 300 yards in a game. On September 13, 1992, in a 34-31 shootout victory over the Steve Young-led San Francisco 49ers, Kelly passed for a career-high 403 yards.

9	Gordie Howe Detroit Red Wings Jersey	Autographed by Gordie Howe: from 1946 to 1980, ,he played twenty-six seasons in the National Hockey League and six seasons in the World Hockey Association. Nicknamed "Mr. Hockey", he is a 23x NHL All-Star. In 2017, he was named one of the "100 Greatest NHL Players". in 1971, he was inducted into the Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame. He won the Stanley Cup with the Red Wings four times and won six Hart Trophies as the NHL's most valuable player. He also led the NHL in playoff points six times.
